Calvin Hatch of Danville was found dead in the Badger barn at Harvey Monday morning. Mr. Hatch went to the barn to feed the horses and soon after was found under a horse's feet, dead and his body bruised, possibly from being trampled by the horse's feet. The cause of death will probably never be known.

For the first time in the memory of the oldest man connected with the Burlington city court, an entire week closed Saturday night, December 30, without a single case of intoxication. A fair average is at least one each day and the record is all the more remarkable in the light of the holiday celebrations.
